

STUDENTS SPEAK OUT AGAINST ANTI-SEMITISM A CREATIVE VIDEO PRODUCTION CONTEST

CONTEST RULES

Open to: This creative contest is an opportunity for people of all backgrounds to share their vision for how to stop anti-Semitism. Jews and non-Jews, students and adults and citizens from any country in the world are encouraged to submit an entry. You must be enrolled in a high school or university at the time of submission.

Original Work: All contest entries must be original. Plagiarism will disqualify an entry. If your writing quotes existing sources or your video uses existing clips, make sure to clearly indicate that in the work.

Adhere to Specific Guidelines: Each award has its own specific guidelines. For example, the video clip submitted can't be longer than 3 minutes. Make sure to stay within those guidelines.

Team Entries: You are welcome to include additional team members in your project, but each entry requires one primary entrant. That primary entrant will receive any award prize and be responsible for dividing up funds among the team members. CAM and B'nai B'rith International cannot be responsible for how the funds are allocated within the team.

Deadlines: Entries should be received by the deadline for each award. The entry form will be open through midnight Pacific Time on the deadline date.

Language: All entries must be submitted in English or, if not in English, accompanied by English subtitles.

Multiple Entries: You are only allowed to submit one entry per award category.

Distribution Rights: As the operators of this contest, CAM and B'nai B'rith International have the right to repost and distribute any contest entries. This includes but is not limited to reposting video clips in publications (website, social media, newspapers, etc.); screening videos online (YouTube, etc.). By submitting your entry, you are agreeing to these terms. At the same time, you are welcome on your own to repost your work as you like.

Contact: If you have questions about the contest, please email speakout@combantisemitism.org or call +1-646-417-4046.

Combat Hate Foundation 10940 Parallel Parkway Suite K-#258 Kansas City, Kansas 66109