OCTOBER 2022 INCIDENTS DATA - 6.3% YEAR-TO-DATE DECREASE FROM 2021

The CAM Antisemitism Research Center tracked 139 antisemitic incidents reported in the media worldwide in October 2022, marking a daily average of 4.5 incidents. Year-to-date, CAM has recorded a total of 1,615 incidents, or an average of 5.3 incidents per day, down 6.3% from the same time frame in 2021.

October 2022 saw 86 incidents of far-right antisemitism (61.9% of total), as well as 22 (15.8%), 11 (7.9%), and 20 (14.4%) in the far-left, Islamist, and unidentifiable categories, respectively.

CAM also monitored seven physical threats against Jews in October, as well as 60 incidents of antisemitic vandalism.

GLOBAL ANTISEMITISM FOCAL POINTS

New Holocaust Trivialization Report Details 214 Public Manifestations of Burgeoning Threat Over Past Year

Between July 2021-July 2022, the CAM Antisemitism Research Center compiled a comprehensive database of public manifestations of trivialization of the Holocaust -- or the purposeful obfuscation of the distinctive nature and scope of the Nazi genocide of the Jewish people during World War II.

The incidents span 29 countries, over six ideological motivations, and various mediums.

Israeli President Laments Rise of Antisemitism in Meeting With CAM Advisory Board

The CAM Advisory Board, led by new Chair Natan Sharansky, met on Oct. 24 with Israeli President Isaac Herzog at his residence in Jerusalem to discuss rising antisemitism around the world and how best to fight it.

"We need collaborations to combat antisemitism, and I commend the work CAM does and hope it goes from strength to strength," President Herzog said in his remarks. "It is a just cause and saves lives."

Uptick in Antisemitic Incidents Across Australia Detected in Recent Months

The CAM Antisemitism Research Center has monitored a cluster of antisemitic incidents in Australia, including swastika vandalism, verbal harassment, displays of antisemitic banners, public neo-Nazi provocations, the distribution of white supremacist flyers, bigoted behavior by soccer fans, the online slandering of an Israeli restaurant, and the passage by an education union of a resolution endorsing BDS and opposing the IHRA Definition of Antisemitism.
